

Free workshop co-sponsored by the Laguna Beach Seniors and the Laguna Beach Community Foundation

RSVP required.

Build Your Grant Seeking Skills

Times are tough. Does your nonprofit organization need to sharpen its grant seeking skills?

This workshop, designed for beginning or intermediate grant seekers, will delve into:

- Where can you look for funding opportunities? What are the best ways to efficiently research corporate and private funders whose missions are in line with your nonprofit's?
- How can your proposal stand out? Tips on writing the most effective grant proposal.
- Who is on your board? What are grant reviewers looking for in the proposal and from your board/staff capacity?

Monday, August 2, 2010
3 to 5 p.m. ~ Susi Q Senior Center

380 Third Street, Laguna Beach

Parking at the Community Center garage is extremely limited. Please carpool, walk, bike or take the trolley!

RSVP REQUIRED: 949-315-9261 or info@lagunabeachcf.org

PHOTO BY ERIKA PARDUN

Panel includes Laguna Beach residents (from left): Barbara McMurray, a public relations, grant and writing professional for nonprofits and for profit organizations; Maya Dunne, a nationally recognized leader in the area of nonprofit management, philanthropy and public sector initiatives addressing community problems; and L.R. (Randy) Kraft, a communications and development consultant for nonprofits with experience in writing over 400 grants.

www.LagunaBeachCommunityFoundation.org